

#	J	V CORPS, G-8
1	Q. When will we know what the 7 th Army end state will be?	A. The concept plan to determine the number of civilian spaces is pending submission to DA. Once the concept plan is returned, we will know what the 7 th Army structure will be. End state planning is based on the anticipated end state.
2	Q. What date is it anticipated the 7 th Army Concept Plan will be received from DA?	A. It is anticipated to be returned to USAREUR in the first quarter of FY 2008.
3	Q. Who will manage vacancies?	A. If the vacancy is under a USAREUR staff principle, the USAREUR staff principle will manage the recruitment of vacated civilian spaces. If the vacancy remains under V Corps, the V Corps staff principle will manage the recruitment of the space.
4	Q. Why must we revalidate positions that are currently exempt from overseas tour rotation?	A. We are requesting revalidation of the positions to ensure that we have the proper positions exempt from the tour rotation.
5	Q. When will employees be notified of their new supervisory chain in USAREUR?	A. V Corps will issue notifications to their employees identifying the movement to USAREUR and the anticipated date. A notice will also be provided from USAREUR that indicates information regarding internal policies, supervisory chain, etc.
6	Q. Who decides whether to abolish my job or not?	A. Management within your organization.
